

Muzinich & Co strengthens expertise in UK private debt with new hire

New York/London 7 February 2018: Muzinich & Co announced that John Clifford has joined the European private debt team.

Based in London, John will be focused on origination and deal sourcing in the UK lower mid-market. John has over a decade of experience in UK mid-market lending. Previous roles include Managing Director in Investec Bank's Growth and Acquisition Finance division and a Partner at independent corporate finance boutique Livingstone Partners.

"Private debt continues to be an ever more accepted and utilized funding solution in the UK and across continental European markets," said Grant Davidson, Co-Head of Private Debt UK. "John's expertise, network and experience in the UK and European market will prove invaluable as we continue to provide flexible financing solutions to SMEs to fund their organic and acquisition-led growth activities."

Muzinich's approach to private debt focuses on the lower end of the mid-market (€5-25mm EBITDA), and the firm has 6 private lending vehicles in Europe.
