

Muzinich & Co.’s private debt team realises investment in Pan-European Private Debt Platform

London 22 October 2019.

Muzinich & Co.’s private debt team announced they have achieved a realisation in their private debt platform.

In August 2018, Muzinich provided acquisition financing to LDC to purchase FC Business Intelligence (FCBI), an international events company that organises and runs a diverse range of sector-leading conferences. Following a period of rapid growth, FCBI was recently sold to Thomson Reuters.

“Muzinich were an extremely supportive funder of the business and the ongoing flexibility and commerciality they provided FCBI and senior management was extremely welcome,” commented Piers Latimer, CEO of FCBI.

“It has been great to witness FCBI’s rapid growth under LDC’s ownership,” added Grant Davidson, Co-Head of UK Private Debt at Muzinich. “We are delighted to have supported the company to achieve this successful exit.”

Muzinich has provided funding to five buyouts in the UK over the past 12 months, providing capital to small and medium-sized enterprises for growth and development.
