Muzinich Italian Private Debt Initiative Announces its Second Closing

Milan, 1 April 2015 – Muzinich & Co. is pleased to announce that its Italian Private Debt Strategy, a strategy dedicated to financing medium sized enterprises in Italy, has had its second closing. Investors include a variety of Italian and international institutional investors, including insurance companies, pension funds, banks and family offices.

The strategy distributed to professional/qualified investors in the European Union. The strategy is completely independent in its decision making and is not affiliated with any bank or other financial institution.

The Muzinich Italian Private Debt Strategy aims to invest in a diversified portfolio of companies. It targets companies with revenues of € 50-500 million with a minimum EBITDA of approximately € 7.0 million. The strategy is to provide long term growth financing to the Italian Middle Market

The Milan-based Muzinich team is supported by highly experienced private debt specialists based in Europe and the US.

Muzinich is an international asset management firm, founded in 1988, specializing in corporate credit. It had assets under management of 20.8 billion euros at the end of December 2014. Muzinich has a large and experienced team operating from its offices in New York, London, Milan, Paris, Cologne, Madrid, and Zurich. For more information, please visit: www.muzinich.com.
