Muzinich & Co. Expands European Syndicated Loans Capabilities

London, August 17 2016 - Corporate credit specialist Muzinich & Co. is pleased to announce that Torben Ronberg, Stuart Fuller, Sam McGairl and Alex Woolrich will be joining the firm.

These very talented investment professionals will focus on syndicated loans in Europe. Their long-standing expertise complements our current activities in European publicly traded corporate bonds and European private debt.

This expansion of our team forms part of our global effort to invest across the capital structure and provide compelling investment opportunities for our investors.

They will join from ECM Asset Management, a subsidiary of Wells Fargo.
