

Muzinich & Co. invests in Sapphire Systems

London 18 December 2019: Muzinich & Co. announced it has recently invested in Sapphire Systems in its private debt platform to focus on driving organic growth and strengthening its market position.

Founded in 1993, Sapphire Systems has a market-leading position as channel partner to providers of enterprise resource planning software, principally SAP and Infor's SUN Systems. The firm provides the initial sale of the software as well as follow-up maintenance and support contracts. With close to 900 clients, Sapphire has been operating in the UK for over 20 years and has also successfully begun to expand into the US.
